Rumor: School Board Ready To Oust Meyer

Rumors began circulating in the last few days that the Antioch grade school board is planning to fire the district's superintendent, Henry Meyer.

The rumors attracted about 100 teachers and parents to Monday night's special board meeting, but no action was taken.

The board's president, Gerald Vandermeer, explained that only four of the seven members were present. LaVerne M. Woods and Milo Bailey were out of town and James Miles also was absent.

Present were Gail Heath, Bob Kelley and Ray Atwood, in addition to Mr. Vandermeer.

THE FIRST item on the agenda of the meeting that didn't materialize was the contract and salary of the superintendent, Mr. Meyer.

That item was postponed until the Tuesday, Dec. 9, meeting along with two other items: the contracts and salaries of grade school principals and the contract and salary of the business manager.

After long and sometimes deadlocked negotiations, the board recently arrived at an agreement with the grade school district's teachers. It reportedly amounted to an average salary increase of about 10 percent, plus "unlimited accumulative sick leave for all non-certified personnel."

THEN THE word began spreading that Mr. Meyer's contract would not be renewed.

So far, neither the board members nor Mr. Meyer have made a statement to the press. But the rumor resulted in the large turnout at Monday night's special meeting.

Mr. Meyer made a statement to the gathering, but it was merely this:

"In a situation like this people may wonder if some kind of financial or moral scandal is involved. This is not the case. There is no scandal of any kind."

ONE OF the teachers said that Monday night's turnout was "public support for Mr. Meyer."

On Monday, some of the

BUT NOW THEY'RE HISTORY

(Editor's note: this is the third and final article in a series about the history of Antioch. The stories were taken from the pamphlet, "Environmental Inventories," published by Grade School District 34. The "inventories" were taken by several of the district's teachers, then reviewed and edited by some of Antioch's leading citizens. We are grateful to Michael D. Teeley, District 34's environmental education project director, and his fellow teachers, for making these articles available to the readers of the Antioch News.)

DURING THE late 1800's the Chain O'Lakes had waters that were clear and weedless and one of the most colorful jobs offered at that time was that of an ice worker. This area had at least four such operations located on Channel Lake, Loon Lake and Camp Lake in Wisconsin. These lakes were chosen because they afforded the most depth.

The four Oetting brothers, William, Charles, Henry and Herman arrived from Germany in the 1890's to establish two ice businesses, one on Channel Lake and another on Camp Lake. Men were recruited to work in these camps and lived in boarding houses operated by the companies.

Using saws to cut blocks of ice and pike poles to move the blocks, these men dragged the ice across the lakes on sleighs pulled by horses. The men then loaded these blocks on boxcars on spur lines of the Soo Line Railroad. After a 10 to 12 hour day they ate their supper and played their music, anticipating their next day's work.

ICE WAS stored for summer sales in a 40 foot high ice house with sawdust packed walls 10 inches thick. Slough hay was spread over the ice to prevent melting.

Other companies located in the area included Consumers Ice Company, Lincoln Ice Company and Wolf's Ice Company.

During the early 1900's it was very impractical to take milk to Chicago by horse and wagon. Time and spoilage forced the farmers to use the Soo Line for shipping. Farmers arrived at the Antioch depot at 3:30 a.m. to load their cans aboard and the train left at varying times between 4 and 6 in the morning.

With the advent of refrigeration in the 1930's ice companies sold their holdings to subdividers and dairies were established, thus causing the demise of rail transportation for these industries.

The depression caused a halt to new industrial growth until the late 1930's when Pickard China built a factory on Corona Avenue near Depot Street. Pickard's original factory was established in Chicago in 1894 and the new factory provided jobs for several local families.

During the war years and also during the 1950's industries were established on McMillian, Anita, Gail, Ida streets and Sequoit Ave. This area now serves as Antioch's industrial park.

State Representative Daniel M. Pierce (D-Highland Park) will be honored at a reception Sunday, from 4 to 6 p.m., at the Highland Park Woman's Club. Honorary Co-chairmen of the reception are Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett and Senator Adlai E. Stevenson III.

2 Burglaries In Antioch

Two burglaries were reported to Antioch police last week.

Charles Pearlman of Chicago, who has a summer home at 144 Oakwood Dr., reported that his residence was broken into.

Entry was gained by breaking a window. The burglar, or burglars, took four radios valued at $100, a stereo set valued at $300, a record set valued at $300, an assortment of tools valued at $500, a movie camera valued at $275, some jewelry and - from a refrigerator in the basement - 12 cans of beer.

A burglary also was reported at Colleen's Fine China, 390 Lake St. A rear door was broken into and Joe M. Bivona, the store's owner, said that among the missing items were an original oil painting valued at $65, figurines valued at $150, plus other porcelain figures.

Plan Two Performances Of 'Messiah'

The Community Chorus of Antioch will present two performances of Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," on Sunday, Dec. 7, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 o'clock in the evening, in the sanctuary at St. Benedict's Abbey, Benet Lake, Wis.

The Town Crier

A big question mark wrapped itself around Antioch in the last few days.

Was Henry Meyer "in" or "out" as superintendent of Grade School District 34?

If the question hasn't been answered by the time this issue goes to press, it will be the talk of the town in the next few days—perhaps in the next week or two.

We have been here less than two years and if a majority of the seven board members want to oust Mr. Meyer, we really don't know their reasons.

We can say this, however, in favor of Mr. Meyer:

His public relations ability, as far as dealing with newspaper people, is tremendous. His relationship with the Antioch News, and the way he has treated us as a representative of District 34, have been superb.

SENATOR ADLAI Stevenson of Illinois has announced that he will not be a candidate for President of the United States.

Which, translated in political language, means that, of course, he is a candidate for President of the United States.

RONALD REAGAN flashed a refreshing sense of humor during the weekend.

When it was suggested that none of the old Ronald Reagan movies be allowed on television, because then other candidates could demand equal time, Reagan observed: "After watching some of my old movies, I think I should demand equal time."

THE TRAIN came to a sudden stop, jerking the passengers around.

"What has happened, conductor?" cried one nervous lady.

"Nothing much," said the conductor. "We hit a cow."

"Oh," said the relieved lady. "Was it on the tracks?"

"No," replied the conductor, "We chased her into the barn."

BARRY GOLDWATER

Ford's 'Drift to Right' Is What People Want

By SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER

Liberal Republicans are frantically concerned about the conservative policies of the Ford Administration.

Infact, this small band of big-city liberals has been keeping up a steady drumfire of complaints aimed at forcing President Ford to adopt more radical measures.

The argument recently put forth by Sen. Charles Mathias of Maryland in an address to the National Press Club was that the Ford Administration is drifting to the right. Earlier, Sens. Jacob Javits of New York, Charles Percy of Illinois and Clifford Case of New Jersey had complained directly to the President that his attacks on federal spending had not "been doing his compassionate nature justice."

As a card-carrying conservative in the Republican Party I should like to make these observations concerning the liberal complaints:

1-If the Ford Administration is moving to the right, it is not the result of a casual "drift" but rather a deliberate course chartered by the President in response to demands from the American people.

2-The mere fact of opposition to federal spending does not run counter to an official's feeling of compassion for the less-fortunate people among us. It could easily be that the worst thing we could do for those who need help is to continue our deficit-financing attempts to keep abreast of the nation's welfare rolls.

3-The Republican liberals who recently voiced their complaints at a White House meeting would do well to look at some cities in their own states. For example, the liberals in Sen. Javits' hometown have been literally dripping with compassion in public programs for the past 20 years, and the state of New York City's financial affairs is now so deplorable that it is casting a pall over the economic recovery of the entire nation.

This is certainly no time for the Republican Party to turn away from policies of economy and limited government to embrace the principles of bankrupt liberals. Rather it is time to rededicate the party to its traditional pledges of a balanced budget and payments on the national debt.

teachers at the Upper Grade School began circulating and seeking signatures for the following petition:

"WE TEACHERS of District 34, regarding ourselves as professional members of this district's educational team, feel the need to strongly reaffirm our support of our team's leader, Henry Meyer.

"Within the team we see problems and dissension. The recognition that problems exist is the first step in their solution; dissension is the strongest evidence that a climate of professional and academic freedom exists. In addition, we see a district that has evolved differently from those in neighboring areas. This evolution reflects the dedication with which our team, under the guidance and direction of Mr. Meyer, continually has worked to tailor our educational program to the particular needs of our children.

"Further, we see Mr. Meyer under attack from some members of the community. The strength of this attack is a measure of the integrity and courage he has shown in defense of educationally sound positions. We believe that strong educational progress has been made under Mr. Meyer's leadership and that this progress will continue. We therefore take this opportunity to support and endorse Henry Meyer with the desire that our children may continue to benefit from the energetic, creative atmosphere that he has fostered. This creative atmosphere has aided the development of a school district that is a model for other Lake County schools in terms of achievement and curriculum.

"Only as a team with strong leadership can we continue to make our schools better. Mr. Meyer provides the leadership our team needs."

Winter Driving Hint

If you suddenly find yourself driving across a sheet of ice, should you immediately take your foot off the accelerator?

No, says the National Safety Council. This could actually throw your car into a skid, since the sudden deceleration has a braking effect. It's better to maintain a constant accelerator pressure or slowly and gradually ease up on the pedal.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

There are a couple of boys in Oakwood Knolls subdivision whose parents ought to toss them into Cross Lake on one of these cold mornings.

Rick Siebert of 114 Oakwood Dr. told police that he saw the two boys throw a cat into the lake. Then he heard one say:

"Now that it's wet, let's throw it in the fire to dry off."

According to the police report, the boys then threw the cat into a pile of burning leaves. Luckily, Rick rescued it before it was injured and returned the pet to its owner.

ON THE brighter side, we're in store for lots of wholesome entertainment, thanks to the Antioch Chamber of Commerce & Industry. (See the big ad elsewhere in this issue.)

Santa Claus will be arriving Friday afternoon and many merchants will have special treats for shoppers on Friday night, which is "Hospitality Night."

Kids will enjoy a delightful PM&L play, "The Golden Grotto" on Saturday afternoon and Saturday evening.

And don't forget that Santa, after he rides down Main St. on a fire truck at 2:30 p.m., will settle in a comfortable chair at the rescue squad building in order to chat with all of his little admirers in Antioch from 3 to 7 p.m. Friday.

THE CHAMBER also has announced that its new officers and board members will be installed at the annual dinner-dance on Saturday, Jan. 17.

Dollar Days have been scheduled. They will be Feb. 26, 27 and 28.

ST. PETER'S Thanksgiving Dinner-Dance is always a big event about this time of year, and that reminds us when Frank ReCupido originated the event seven years ago.

Frank also was one of the organizers of the Rotary Club of Antioch, now a thriving group that is growing and growing, and contributing more and more to the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Horton celebrated their wedding anniversary last Thursday, Nov. 20, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patrovsky will be celebrating this Saturday, the 29th.

Rose Kennedy was a "birthday girl" on Nov. 20 and she Horton has a birthday coming up Thursday of this week. Other happy birthdays go to Helen Vogler on the 28th and Joseph E. Horton on the 30th.

Happy birthday, also, to Gloria Grippando on Saturday, the 29th.

These folks, born between Nov. 22 and Dec. 20, are Sagittarians and their horoscope for this week says: "Find a proper outlet for that added vitality; if energies are directed constructively you are able to accomplish more than is expected of you."

They're in good company. Other Sagittarians celebrating this week are Joe DiMaggio, who is 61, believe it or not; John F. Kennedy Jr., who is 15 (remember that little fellow saluting at his father's funeral?)

Caroline Kennedy will be 18 on Thursday and Hope Lange, one of our favorite actresses, will be 42 on Friday.

So much for birthdays. They come around too fast.

1976 License Plates Are Result of Unique Contest

When the State Bank of Antioch opens its doors for business on Monday, Dec. 1, the 1976 auto vehicle license plates, on sale to customers, will bear the grand prize Bicentennial design chosen from the entries of Illinois students who participated in a unique contest to design the Illinois Bicentennial Year License.

To most Americans, "The Spirit of '76" is a painting of three patriots complete with fife and drum, marching their way into history. To Illinois school children, "The Spirit of '76" represented a unique opportunity to participate in the nation's upcoming 200th birthday.

More than 400,000 grade and high school students did take part in the contest conducted by Michael J. Howlett, secretary of state, whose duties include registration of all motor vehicles.

PURPOSE OF the competition was to design a license, which will serve as the state's official Bicentennial Year automobile plate. Authorities in the field say it marked the first time in history that any state involved the public in the selection of color or design of its license plate.

Entry blanks, contest and promotional posters were distributed to public, parochial and private schools, grades one through 12, throughout Illinois. A "Teacher's Guide" was prepared and distributed to primary and secondary instructors. Included in the 12-page brochure were ideas for KELLEY JORDAN and her grand prize design - More than 400,000 students participated in the contest to design Illinois' Bicentennial Year License, available at the State Bank of Antioch starting Monday, Dec. 1, for customers who have their pre-printed renewal forms, now a license requirement. This is the first time any state involved the public in selection of its plate's color or design, and 10-year old Kelley, of Normal, shows off her design which will appear on more than five million cars in 1976.

Ask the Old Farmer: A recipe that has been in our family for at least three generations is "fritters." Dad used to call them "dough godies." Can you tell me about them? H.B., Lititz, Penn.

Dough gods, or godies, as we knew 'em, are simply slices of bread dough fried in hot fat like a doughnut. They are sprinkled with sugar or maybe swabbed with syrup, and served hot.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. Foster

Janice Doolittle Weds Kenneth Foster

Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ was the setting when Janice E. Doolittle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Doolittle, of Antioch, became the bride of Kenneth C. Foster, son of Mrs. Raymond Yozamp of Cary, and the late Carl Foster.

The candlelight ceremony on Nov. 1 was performed by the Rev. Donald A. McPeck and Rev. L.H. Messersmith.

Marcia Doolittle was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Nancy Foster of Knoxville, Tenn., the groom's sister; Jamie Rhyner of Durand; and Pamela Kidd of Wauconda.

Cynthia Momson, niece of the groom; and Lynda Salermon, cousin of the bride, served as flower girls.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Thomas Foster of Arlington Heights. Groomsmen were Gary Doolittle, the bride's brother; Albert Gibbon of Mt. Prospect and John Hunter of Rolling Meadows.

The new Mrs. Foster is a graduate of College of Lake County and is employed as a secretary at International Minerals and Chemicals, Mundelein. The bridegroom, a marketing analyst with Allstate Insurance, Northbrook, received his M.A. degree from Loyola Graduate School of Business, Chicago.

They are making their home in Lake Bluff.

Wedding Date Set

A Jan. 10 wedding date has been set for Tonna Lynn Tucich of Mundelein and J. Craig Dayton of Antioch.

They will be married at the Ivanhoe Congregational Church in Mundelein.

The bride-to-be, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor D. Tucich of Mundelein, is an executive secretary at Aluminum Mills, Inc. in Lincolnshire.

Her fiancé, who attended Carroll College in Waukesha, Wis., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dayton Jr. of Antioch.

The couple will make their home in Antioch, where Craig is employed by Michael Warren & Co. Realtors.

By Sonia

ARIES [March 21 - April 19] — Allow for a flexible schedule this week as interests tend to be scattered. Travel is indicated so clear up existing obligations and get future plans underway.

TAURUS [April 20 - May 20] — Accent tends to be on partner's resources. Work on improving communications with those close to you so misunderstandings can be eliminated.

GEMINI [May 21 - June 21] — As you are in the public's eye now it's a good idea to concentrate on your own personal image. Business deals and new partnerships are in the offing.

CANCER [June 22 - July 21] — Be alert for new job opportunities. Improvements in working conditions are indicated. You are prone to be more detail-minded now, so work turns out well.

LEO [July 22 - August 21] — Make an effort to get out and cultivate new acquaintances, pleasant relationships can now be formed. A good trend for working with young people.

VIRGO [August 22 - September 22] — Look into the possibilities of investing in real estate but don't make hasty moves. Enlist the advice of close family members when decisions must be made.

LIBRA [September 23 - October 22] — Handling paperwork and letter writing should be done early in the week. A short trip and change of scenery provides you with that second wind. Make plans.

SCORPIO [October 23 - November 21] — Don't overextend your spending power; buying unnecessary items puts a tremendous strain on the budget now. Use your creativity and good business judgment to improve finances.

SAGITTARIUS [November 22 - December 20] — Find a proper outlet for that added vitality; if energies are directed constructively you are able to accomplish more than is expected of you.

CAPRICORN [December 21 - January 20] — Try to create a relaxed atmosphere as you are more comfortable in quieter surroundings now. Research work is intriguing as you have the gift of getting to the bottom of things.

AQUARIUS [January 21 - February 19] — The goals you've set in the past can now materialize. Nothing is out of reach if you set your mind to it.

PISCES [February 20 - March 20] — If you need the assistance of higher ups don't hesitate to ask for help. Being in the limelight more now prompts you to be on your best behavior.

color and design selection; information on the state's official symbols and motto; and the history of license plates in Illinois.

Letters were sent to all clergymen, and leaders of civic and fraternal groups, including the PTA, Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary, asking them to join in the project. The letters suggested they contact principals in their area and urge them to participate, offer assistance in judging, and arrange for student designs to be displayed in public buildings and shopping centers.

LOCAL SCHOOL principals selected and forwarded the two best designs in each grade division at his school. Almost 14,000 entries were submitted by principals to the secretary of state.

The secretary of state's staff screened the 14,000 and turned over more than 500 to a "blue ribbon" citizens committee headed by James L.O'Keefe, a Chicago corporate attorney. All entries passed on to the committee were certified as practical to produce and in compliance with contest rules.

A subcommittee headed by Thomas King, general manager of the Merchandise Mart, Chicago, selected 42 finalists, one for each division in each of 14 geographic regions throughout the state.

The full blue ribbon committee met a few days later and selected the winning entry in each of the three divisions. From these three, they chose the grand prize winner, which was announced at special ceremonies in Illinois' historic old State Capitol. A number of state officials joined committee members, the 42 finalists and their families at the award presentation in the building, which is famed as the site of Abraham Lincoln's famous "House Divided" speech.

The grand prize winner, Kelley Jordan, 10 years old, of Normal, received a $1,000 scholarship grant. A fourth grade student at Oakdale School, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jordan. Jordan is a city policeman in Normal.

Jan Roach, of Geneva, and Jim Shaw, of East Moline, each received a $500 scholarship. Each of the 42 finalists received a set of World Book Encyclopedias for his or her school. They also were given a reproduction of the winning design by the 3-M Company and a commemorative medal by the Illinois Bicentennial Commission.

American Legion Auxilliary

The auxilliary will hold its next meeting Monday at the Legion Hall with Myra Randall as chairman of the evening.

This will be the Christmas meeting and the Legionnaires have been invited as guests for a potluck supper. Card games will be played after supper.

The 10th district meeting was held at the Gurnee village hall with Helen DeVries, president of the auxilliary, attending. She was accompanied by delegates Dorothy Horan, Myra Randall, Rose Kennedy, Ann Gialds and Eunice Rathmann. State representatives reported on veterans affairs.

If things really get tough we can lay off a few congressmen.

NEW ORLEANS' OWN SHRIMP COCKTAIL

If you visit New Orleans you may find yourself passing up your own favorite shrimp cocktail for the local favorite, Shrimp Remoulade. This is shrimp marinated for hours in a fiery, reddish-gold sauce, then served as an appetizer, traditionally on flat plates over unusually wispy amounts of salad greens.

Behind the scenes in the city's restaurant kitchens, especially the famous older ones, you will see an inevitable array of large, flat pans filled with marinating shrimp, Creole style. One nice thing about this tangy remoulade is that all ingredients are familiar, easy to get. Nothing far-out or expensive. And it will work texturizing miracles with the handiest package of all, the can-vient kind of shrimp. Canned shrimp remoulade keeps and keeps. Make it a week or more ahead, if you wish, and keep refrigerated. The longer the shrimp stand in the sauce, the firmer, more "chewy" they seem to get.

SHRIMP REMOULADE

3 cans (4 1/2 ounces each) shrimp
3 garlic cloves, cut fine
1/3 cup horseradish mustard
2 tablespoons catsup
2 tablespoons paprika
1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
1/3 cup tarragon vinegar
1/2 cup olive oil or other salad oil
1/2 cup finely chopped green onions, tops included

Drain shrimp. Crush garlic in a bowl and stir in all ingredients, except shrimp. When thoroughly blended, add the shrimp. Marinate in the refrigerator two hours or longer, stirring occasionally. Serve on small portions of shredded lettuce or other salad greens. Makes 6 to 8 servings. (Note: Canned shrimp remoulade is perfect make-ahead party food. Provide party picks and assorted crackers.)

THE HEAT PUMP

A new era in home climate control begins

About forty-five years ago, scientists began developing a revolutionary heating device that uses the heat of the earth's atmosphere. They called it a heat pump. Today, it is the only commercially available heating system that provides an answer to shrinking supplies of fuel oil and gas.

How the heat pump works.

Basically, the heat pump moves heat from one place to another. Using electricity to run the device, it extracts heat from a limitless source—the heat in outdoor air. During winter, enough heat remains in the air—even on the coldest and cloudiest days—to be extracted by the pump and transferred indoors as clean, flameless heat. And during warm weather, the process automatically reverses, removing excess indoor heat and humidity—like an air conditioner.

Better efficiency.

In short, the heat pump does the job of both a furnace and an air conditioner. But there's an important difference. The heat pump produces more than 1 1/2 units of heat energy for every unit it consumes. That's better efficiency than any other current heating system.

It's ready.

It's ideal for new homes because it won't be obsolete in ten years. It's not dependent on the fossil fuels that may not be available in the future. To the homeowner, that means significant long-term savings on heating costs.

The heat pump is a big step in the conservation of scarce fuels. And here in northern Illinois, the electricity you would use to capture the heat comes mainly from coal and nuclear energy, rather than scarce oil and gas.

To get the full advantages of the heat pump, it's important to get a quality product, properly installed and reliably serviced. For the name of qualified installers in your area, call G. W. Berkheimer (Westinghouse Distrs.), (312) 374-4411, or General Electric Co., (312) 496-6356. If you want additional heat pump information, call your local Commonwealth Edison office and talk to our marketing engineer.

Insulation Lacking In Most U.S. Homes

Nine out of 10 homes are under-insulated and more than half have no insulation at all. That's why the National Bureau of Standards has claimed we waste more than 40 per cent of the energy we consume heating and cooling our homes.

Sequoits Debut In Barrington Classic

By MIKE WITT

The Antioch Sequoits open their basketball season tonight (Wednesday) at Barrington in the Barrington Thanksgiving Turkey Classic.

Other teams participating are Cary-Grove of the Northwest conference, Barrington of the North Suburban conference, and Elgin-Larkin of the Upstate Eight.

The Sequoits placed second last year as they whipped Cary-Grove 71-37, and put back Barrington 64-53. But they lost a heart-breaker to the tourney champs, Elgin Larkin, by a score of 62-61.

Antioch has always made a fine showing at Barrington under Coach Roger Andrews, and has won the championship three out of the last four years. How do our Sequoits stand this year in regard to the other teams?

ALL THREE opponents lost their five starters from last year. Elgin-Larkin should be tough since it is gaining some good players from the soph squad which won the tournament last year on that level.

Barrington should be respectable with a big and physical team. Cary-Grove remains to be seen. Both teams lost their openers last Friday with Cary-Grove soundly thrashed by Buffalo Grove 75-42, and Barrington losing to Wheeling 83-62.

SO EVEN though Antioch is losing four starters, the other teams do not hold an advantage in this respect. The only returning starter here is 6-3 Scott Kimball. Coach Andrews commented on Kimball:

"He has looked as good as any player I've ever had at this point of the season."

Kimball will be joined by returning letterman 6-1 Jon Bodin and 6-4½ George Ferguson.

Bodin will be running the offense and leading the Antioch fast break. Ferguson will be a scoring threat and probably the Sequoits' top rebounder.

These three will probably join seniors Mitch Witt and Bob Dubek to form an all senior line up for the first time in a long while.

THE SEQUOITS' main task

will be their early-season experiment of trying to play together at this stage of the year. Last week's intrasquad game showed needed signs of improvement, but of course its very early in the season.

If they can smooth out this problem and play together the way they can, they will be hard to beat.

Games and times of the Turkey Classic are as follows:

Antioch vs. Barrington, Wed., Nov. 26, 8:30.

Antioch vs. Elgin-Larkin, Fri., Nov. 27, 6:45.

Antioch vs. Cary-Grove, Sat., Nov. 29, 6:45.

Laughing at yourself is easy when you're the only one doing it.

NEW MASSEY SNOWMOBILES

New Massey Snowmobiles: Excitement engineering by the sled full.

Come in and take a look at three great new Massey snowmobiles for 1976, and you'll know what we mean by excitement engineering.

These Masseys are loaded with innovative new ideas that will add to your snowmobiling excitement this year—in terms of performance, handling, dependability and comfort.

There's CYCLONE, the big performance cross-country competitor... CHINOOK, the economical compact... and WHIRLWIND, the exciting all-around sports machine with an unbelievable ride.

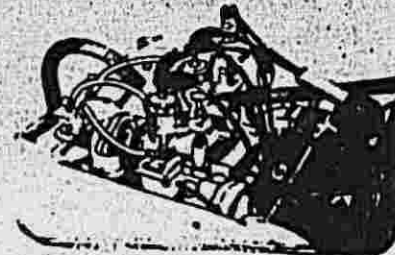

Each new Massey snowmobile has an aluminum alloy tunnel. It eliminates rust and corrosion problems while contributing to the superior power-to-weight ratio offered by all the new Masseys.

Then there's the patented Para-Rail suspension on the Whirlwind. Para-Rail settles the argument between bogie and slide by providing the best of both. You get the ride and performance of a slide and the marginal snow versatility of a bogie.

Rail-mounted wheels act as a single unit, working with a double-acting rear shock to give you a ride that's comfortable as well as extremely stable. And a unique "torque transfer system" puts sled weight to the rear for extra track contact during acceleration, then moves the weight forward for better handling and a smooth ride at higher speeds.

Another significant innovation is the Bronze liquid-cooled engine in Massey Cyclone models. This proven engine is a performance power plant, with both two-cylinder and three-cylinder models offering a Mikuni slide carburetor for each cylinder. Engine coolant is cooled by snow in a tunnel-mounted heat exchanger.

All new Massey snowmobiles offer a great new torque and speed sensing clutch system that delivers an outstanding percentage of horsepower to the track, without the banging noises often associated with snowmobile clutches.

A tuned exhaust system on all three machines helps you get the most from every drop of fuel, thanks to a scavenging effect that creates extra torque and higher rpm's. Quiet, too!

There's more to the Massey snowmobile story, as you'll discover when you come in. We've got service know-how, we have parts in stock, and we offer MF financing if you desire.

When you look at excitement engineering, and what we offer to back it up, you'll go Massey this year.

Shocking Atrocities Uncovered!

Jehovah's Witnesses from Malawi who were residing in Mozambique now have been driven out of that country because they refuse to shout "Viva Frelimo" in favor of the new dictator government there. Forced back into Malawi, about 4,800 of them fled to Zambia. But on October 22, we learned, these Witnesses were repatriated to Malawi a second time.

"Dr. H. Kamuzu Banda, a staunch elder in Malawi's Presbyterian Church of Central Africa," as he was described in Time magazine of December 8, 1972, has again shown his hatred for Jehovah's witnesses. So upward of 30,000 are now back in Malawi. They have been harrassed and brutally persecuted. Hundreds have been stripped naked, severely beaten and have had itching beans rubbed into their wounds. The women have been fiendishly raped. What atrocities!

The latest development: The police are rounding up Jehovah's witnesses and putting them in detention camps. Another Siberia! Another Hitler-Nazi concentration camp! Children are being separated from their mothers, the persecutors thinking that they can train them to be followers of a man rather than followers of Christ Jesus.

ACHS Selects Frosh Cagers

Coach Norm Hahn this week announced that he has selected Antioch High School's 1975-76 freshman basketball team. Twenty-five squad members were chosen.

"Fifty-five boys competed during the six-day tryout period," Hahn said. The following athletes were selected:

Hahn, in his ninth year as an Antioch basketball coach, is optimistic about this year's team. He hopes to repeat last year's performance when the frosh were conference champs.

Assisting Coach Hahn is a new man to the program, Steve Miklautsch. Steve is no newcomer to Antioch, though. He played for Coach Roger Andrews on the 1966-67 team that went 26 and 5 and also was on the varsity in 1967-68. Miklautsch teaches at Grass Lake School.

The frosh will open their season on Dec. 6 when they entertain Grant at 9 a.m. The public is invited to all freshman games.

Lions' Health Fair Attracts 1,012

A total of 1,012 persons Sunday took advantage of the 5th annual Community Health Fair sponsored by the Antioch Lions Club.

The free clinic attracted persons from the ages of 3 to 90. It was an opportunity that many otherwise couldn't have afforded.

In addition to the "Save Our Sight" program, which attracted more than 1,000 persons, more than 600 took blood pressure tests and 462 had chest X-rays.

It was all free ... a contribution of the Lions Club to the people of this area.

Earl Stringer, president of the Lions Club, and Fred Marvin of Downers Grove, head of the Vision Conservation Institute, directed the program which packed the Antioch High School cafeteria area.

Dr. Al Bucar of Antioch had members of the Lake-McHenry County Optometric Society help him take glaucoma tests.

Lions Club members and their wives turned out in full force to perform the tests that could be handled by non-professionals. Girl scouts and their leaders were there to direct people to the proper stations.

About eight physicians, plus nurses and members of the Antioch Rescue Squad helped with blood pressure tests.

Stringer said that a date already had been set for next year, and it will be earlier. It will be Oct. 3, the first Sunday in October, he said, and the Lions might add foot inspection, a hearing clinic and perhaps information on cancer.

Tom Haley was chairman of this year's event for the Lions Club. Members of the committee in charge of the "Save Our Sight" project were Gus Costoff, Bill Yucus, Jerry Rockow, Dave Bushing and Vic Filip.

FOR 76

by EDWARD P. MORGAN

Everybody knows now where Betty Ford, bless her, stands on virtually everything. She's for women's rights including hers to share a bed, as often as possible, with her husband. She wouldn't be "surprised" if daughter Susan were to have an affair and she continues to cheer in public the Supreme Court's decision making an abortion a private matter between a woman and her doctor.

The raucous reaction seemed to put the nation in such a state of shock that we might not be able to celebrate the Bicentennial. President Ford didn't help. He tried to push it all under the rug, estimating it might lose him more than 20 million votes.

Translation: a politician — and his wife — should be as devious as possible on controversial issues or, better yet, avoid them entirely.

This is an insult — though not a new one — to the intelligence of the American electorate. It embraces the dubious Madison Avenue psychology that to sell soap to the biggest audience you mustn't alienate anybody. One reason the body politic is in such a lather about politics and politicians is that people resent being soft-soaped. They want some abrasive plain talk, some downright candor they can understand and respect — even if they don't agree.

'Golden Grotto' Is Fun for All

"The Golden Grotto" will open on Antioch's PM&L Stage Saturday with two performances, one at 2 p.m. and the other at 7:30 p.m.

It is a classic legend turned upside-down with comedy enjoyed by young and old. There is a magic grotto to provide an entertaining background for loads of laughs.

The cast led by a "portly, middle-aged dragon" by the unlikely name of Siegfried Wagner (Bruce Berger of McHenry) takes the audience along on a fun-filled adventure. Also captivating hearts and funny bones will be King Ludwig, a stingy, threadbare sort of monarch (Frank DiMarco of Antioch) and his daughter is Princess Blanda (Christie MacKenzie of Duck Lake).

Tom Hausman of Antioch as the Great Zauberinger causes no end of inconvenience for Prince Bracko, a prince frog (John Denk) as well as Nurse Woephful (Grace Kurth) and Hildegard Loch (Lyn Zaehler).

Don Beveroth is director and he is assisted by Mary Chris LaKome and Tracy Teltz on music.

Reservations can be made for the Dec. 5, 6, 12 and 13 performances by calling 395-3055. Those performances will have an 8:30 p.m. curtain.

ENJOYABLE ENTERTAINMENT FOR children and adults alike is promised Saturday when the "Golden Grotto" is performed on the PM&L Stage at 2 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. Tom Hausman (left will be seen as the fumbling magician and Frank Di Marco (right) as the king. It is the Chamber of Commerce and Industry's annual Christmas play, given by the PM&L troupe. An adult must accompany children to the performances.

Lakeside Rebekah Lodge

The annual meeting of District 3 was held at the American Legion Hall.

Members from Antioch, Waukegan, Libertyville, Barrington, Highland Park and Crystal Lake attended.

Zella Larson of Lakeside was installed as district president, Clare Horton, Lakeside as secretary.

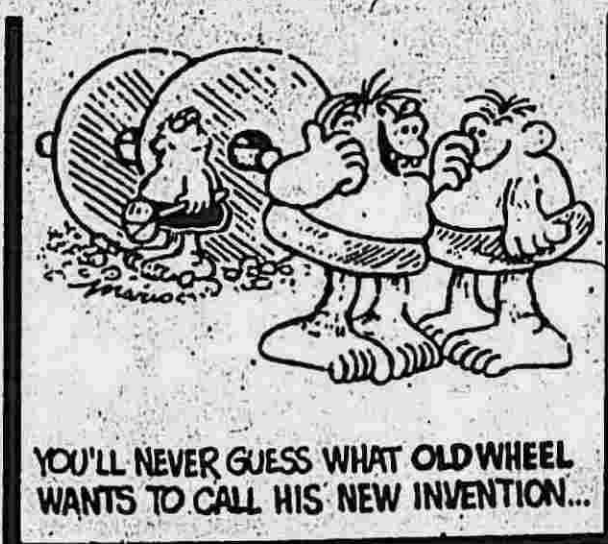

Sister Larson was escorted to the tune of "Hello Zella" as her escorts wore large brim hats and carried umbrellas.

Clare Horton presented Zella with a quilt she made, consisting of signatures of members of the district and emblems of the order.

The next meeting, Dec. 3, will include election of officers.

AMONG THOSE who delighted the audiences at Antioch Community High School last Thursday, Friday and Saturday were (from left) Tom Manglesdorf as Prince Dauntless, Greg Mieure as the jester and Mike Shapiro as King Sextimus the Silent. They were three of the featured performers in the school's musical comedy, "Once Upon a Mattress," directed by Ken Smouse.

State Bank of Antioch Has Top Christmas Club

Christmas shoppers in Lake County will have more than $2 million to spend this year as a result of Christmas Club savings they made at financial institutions in the past 50 weeks.

The State Bank of Antioch topped all financial institutions in the county by issuing $233,103 to 1,485 members.

Second was the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Waukegan with an issuance of $233,000.

Eighteen banks and five savings and loan firms reported that more than 12,000 Christmas Club members saved that amount of money and that the average check mailed to members amounted to $170.

Antioch's Health Needs To Be Discussed

A general membership meeting of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry will be held Monday at Lorenz's Smart Country House.

Lunch will be served at 12:15 p.m. and the program will be "Antioch's Health Needs in the Next Decade," presented by Dr. Edward Abderholden and Antioch Rescue Squad Captain Jim Fields.

HOME BUYER

CLINIC
By Richard H. Howlett
President-Elect
American Land Title Association

TAKING PRECAUTIONS

In land title searching and examination on behalf of home buyers and other real estate investors, emphasis is placed upon clearing up known problems of public record that could cause trouble after transactions are completed. This preventative work before purchase minimizes the chance that buyers and others will be threatened by land title hazards.

But it is not possible to find all title problems in a search of the public records, as a home buyer in a southern state recently discovered.

This purchaser had completed his transaction when he was named in a legal action, in which the wife of the former owner claimed her signature on a mortgage had been forged. This mortgage on the property was foreclosed before the buyer received title to the real estate concerned.

Investigation determined that the signature of the wife in all probability was a forgery—and that as a result the home buyer only held good title to a half interest in the property instead of full ownership as he originally thought.

The buyer in this case avoided substantial monetary loss because of owner's title insurance obtained when completing his real estate purchase. An attorney was retained, who worked out a cash settlement to satisfy the wife's interest in the property so the buyer could retain full ownership.

CUT CLEANING TIME

What's your favorite sport? If house cleaning isn't your answer, keep these basic ideas in mind to help you get through it faster:

* Concentrate on doing one job at a time. Set aside one morning for doing the laundry, another for vacuuming and floor washing, a third for dusting and "smudge" work.

* Certain spray cleaning chores that require little or no moving of objects can be done all at once—and with new Glass*Plus™ glass, appliance, and cabinet cleaner. It takes care of cleaning windows and window sills, light switches and fixtures, door knobs, mirrors, kitchen and bathroom sinks and spigots, cabinets, shelves and countertops. You can move from room to room, spray cleaner and clean cloth in hand.

* Organize your cleaning aids—store floor cleaners with mops, furniture dust and polish aids with feather dusters and polishing cloth, etc. Keep duplicate sets on each floor of your home, or carry them conveniently in a caddy.

* Large jobs, like major room overhauls, should be done individually. Plan to do just one or two rooms a day, so you can give them a careful, thorough cleaning.

* Practice the reward system. When the job's done, enjoy yourself...lunch with friends, spend the afternoon reading a good book, or just put your feet up and relax!

Restorations

Your cherished memories don't have to stay tucked away in that attic trunk or in the old family album you pored over as a child. They can be made to glow again... in an honored place in your home or as a gift to someone dear.

Thinking Slim

BY JEAN NIDETCH

It's the most wonderful thing in the world when a saleswoman says, as she sees a thin person trying on a dress, "I wish I had your figure."

I have a friend who heard this recently and she smiled broadly and couldn't resist saying, "I didn't have this figure a few months ago."

She has lost nearly 40 pounds on the Weight Watchers program and has gone down to a Size 8. She says, "I've never worn an 8. I went from diapers to Size 14."

The point is, there are so many joys in being a thin person. One is the sight of your shadow. Another is a reflection in a mirror. Another is the fact that you just plain feel better.

Get some things from the house and put them in a suitcase and weigh it. Make it weigh the same as the overweight you are carrying around.

Then pick up the case and carry it around for a while. When you get rid of it, it's a great feeling.

When you get rid of the extra weight, it's an even greater feeling.

Makes you want to smile all the time, because you know the super joy of being skinny.

Let your neighbor park his parking problem in your driveway. When he's planning a party and you're not using your car, offer the space for company.

Give your neighbors a chance to read. Look through your books and see if any should be returned to the library.

Offer your bus or train seat to someone who looks as if he or she needs it more than you do.
